ABOUT ME

My name is Brittani Hope Drost — a writer, artist, and graphic designer based in Berkeley, California. Deep and effective communication is a passion of mine and one I strive to achieve in all manner of artistic pursuits, such as through the written word, ink drawings, and overall design work.

I am an empathetic and incredibly dedicated developer who will work hard to bring your ideas to the world in colorful and creative ways. I am skilled in writing and editing, customer service and client relations, as well as Adobe Creative Cloud (Illustrator, InDesign, Photoshop), and Microsoft Office (Outlook, Word, Excel, Powerpoint).

I am seeking a team of other skilled professionals to work and learn with side by side. If you are in need of collaborations, commissions, or other types of projects, I would love to hear from you!
